

France 4

The free-to-air public channel dedicated to young audiences and cultural programming

France 4 offers cartoons, animated series, live shows, concerts, and educational content, with a focus on both entertainment and learning.

The channel is aimed at children and teenagers aged 4 to 18, as well as families. In prime time, France 4 often broadcasts cultural events, live performances, and youth-oriented programs, making it a versatile channel for both fun and discovery.

