

The job section for specialist and managerial staff with national reach

NZZ JOBS is the job portal with a national reach. The integration of the recruitment ads into the main section of the “Neue Zürcher Zeitung” on Saturdays and the Business Section of “NZZ am Sonntag” guarantees sustained scrutiny of the advertisement twice per week.

JOBS.NZZ.ch reaches the readers of the news portal NZZ.ch and thus opens up direct access to the important target group of passive job-seekers among specialists and managerial staff.
