

TLC is a television for women who find their source of entertainment and inspiration through authentic, often bold and controversial stories. This women's channel arouses curiosity and gives you the opportunity to observe people you don't meet in your life on a daily basis.