Focusing on tarot, zodiac sign characteristics and astrological facts

ASTROWOCHE offers just the right mix of astrological knowledge and entertaining information. For our users, every morning starts with the daily horoscope. We notice that we hit the nerve of our users with our astro content not only by the high number of returning users, but also by the remarkable stickiness and regular feedback. We also inform about important astrological events, explain what the portal days are, or delve deeper into the meaning of individual planets. Anyone who wants to inform themselves about the topic of astrology and wishes for reliable information from experts is in the right place with us.

ASTROWOCHE is part of the WUNDERWEIB publishing unit, and also has its own online presence.
