

Discovery life

Discovery Channel, thanks to its popularity and many years of experience, is one of the most widely distributed television stations in the world and a leader in the category of factual entertainment, i.e. entertainment based on facts. In a dynamic and interesting way, it shows the diversity of the world around us.